

a word from Rosie

Dear Neighbor:

I am one of the lucky animals to be adopted here in Iowa County. I used to be a stray in Dodgeville, but the good people at the Iowa County Humane Society (ICHS) gave me a shelter. Few months later, volunteers Theresa and George from Town of Brigham, took me home and my life is wonderful ever since.

The ICHS is celebrating its 10th anniversary this year. The fight, even after so many years, to keep its door open from day to day is real. The main source of operating funds come from the public, sometimes far away. The society depends on volunteers and a skeleton paid staff. Please visit www.ichs.net for details.

I wish to appeal to you to contribute, whatever amount you can afford and your good heart allows. Please write a check to Iowa County Humane Society, 3207 Bennett Rd. Dodgeville, WI. 53533.
On the memo line write: Rosie.

We appreciate your consideration ahead of time.

Yours, Rosie

P.S. Should you wish to talk to a ICHS volunteer, contact George on 608.347.6666
